

PLease do NOT relax regulations concerning broadcast media ownership. Current regulations offer enough opportunities for near-monopoly situations; relaxing regulations will only serve to accelerate the isolation of the American public from objectivity.